The Annual Quay Service will be held tonight at 6.00pm.

HOLIDAY ARRANGEMENTS

Please be aware that Derek will be taking a much-earned holiday immediately after his service at Museum Street on August 5th. He will be away for most of August, during which time the stewards (Catherine Westren or David Welbourn) should be your first port of call. They will put you in touch with a minister should the need arise. It is important that Derek does not return to a full in-box or a long list of messages, so please make sure you don't send unnecessary copies or messages to him. We wish Derek and Karen a relaxing and refreshing break.

Thank you for your understanding.

David Welbourn (Senior Church Steward)

Free to a good home.

I have had to buy a new printer as my old one just would not print anymore and as usual it takes different cartridges. I have a new full set of HP 364 cartridges and some part used ones. If they do not fit in your printer, do you know of anyone who has this type of machine?

I failed to include the following report from Catherine Westren in the recent Magazine. I promise not to make it a habit!

M.W.I.B (Network)

I hope you have been able to look on our notice board in the coffee room to see what I referred to in my last magazine article?

Since the Spring Day held at Museum Street the Easter Offering has taken place which for the circuit of 18 churches, 16 contributed £2276-33 for which we are really grateful. The work goes on overseas and we support mission partners in other countries. Museum Street congregation gave £196-45, which is an increase of £20 on last year, thank you to all who contributed! The Circuit Service took place at Elmsett this year to dedicate the gifts on a lovely sunny evening in May. As I said before the District MWIB Presidents project for her 2 years is helping the Jamaican Methodist District to farm bees and sell the honey. If you could save any change I am happy to take it and pay in towards that cause – every little helps!

Circuit MWiB Treasurer
